

Royal College of Nursing Lancashire Branches

Joint Lancashire Branches Meeting and Online Learning Event - 'Is Your Job Banding Fit for Purpose?'

Weds, 27th July 2022

11am to 4pm

Hybrid meeting - MS Teams and Face to face at Small Corner Seminar Room, Lancashire Cardiac Centre, Blackpool
Victoria Hospital, Whinney Heys Road,
Blackpool, FY3 8NR

Join us for joint branch meeting and learning opportunity.

Lead by Mary-Anne Parkinson, JES lead for
RCN North West, and Chair of the RCN Stewards Committee, Maggy Heaton, the 2 hour-long learning session will focus on the importance of up-to-date and accurate job descriptions and examine whether existing banding is appropriate for current roles and responsibilities.

From 2pm there will be a joint branch meeting to discuss the issues affecting nursing on both a regional and national level.

Further information from: Maggy Heaton or Mary-Anne Parkinson (maggy.heaton@reps.rcn.org.uk or mary-anne.parkinson@rcn.org.uk)

This hybrid event can be attended in person or online on Microsoft Teams and registration is essential.
This meeting is an important opportunity to provide a reflection of the issues facing our members in the workplace.
