

Art & Design Competition

Lancashire Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust would like to invite young people, of all abilities, aged 11 and under, to take part in our Sustainability Art Competition.

The categories for the competition are as follows:

- EYFS
- KS1
- KS2

Only one entry per person will be accepted.

All you need to do to take part is to submit an A4 (drawing/ painting/ design) with the theme:

Sustainability

"What does it mean to look after our planet?"

Could it be?

Planting More Trees

Reusing Items

Cycle or Walking More

Turning Off Lights

Use Less Plastic

Unplugging Chargers

To enter please ask your school or ward staff to keep the original but send a clear photo of your design with – Your name, category, and school contact details to sustainabilityhub@lthtr.nhs.uk by 26th May 2023

The winners will be announced 5th June 2023

The overall winner will be invited to meet the Trust's CEO at Royal Preston Hospital on 21st June 2023, as well as have their artwork displayed throughout the Trust, Website, and social media platforms.

Prizes will be available in each category.

Supported by

To help you get inspired here are a few sites, you can find out more about sustainability.

Maybe you might have an Eco council at school and have already looked at some topics go to <https://www.eco-schools.org.uk/ten-topics/> for a list of ten different topics.

BBC Bitesize give details around what sustainability involves just go to <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zx394xs> for ideas.

The United Nations have agreed on 17 sustainable development goals just go to <https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/sustainable-development-goals/> for further details.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

